TA MEI WAN PAO'S OPEN LETTER TO WANG CHING-WEI

A letter dated September 2 sent by Ling Fah-sen (凌法森), an adherent of Wang Ching-wei, to the Chinese and English editions of the Ta Mei Wan Pao, was published in the paper with the following Editorial note on September 5 :-

We refute the allegation that the late Mr. Chu Sing-kung (朱醒公) was a Communist. Such allegations in the Far East have been incorrectly used as a means to attack others, just as the expression "member of the Bolshevik Party" is being commonly used in the United States. We are opposed to all forms of terrorism, no matter which party is responsible for their instigation. We thank Mr. Ling for his kindness, but we still insist that Mr. Wang Ching-wei alone is the proper person to reply to this paper.

SEP 5 - 1939A Fair Offer

ON PAGE 1 of Saturday's Shanghai Evening Post, and in our Chinese edition Ta Mei Wan Pao, as well as in Sunday's Mercury and its Chinese edition Ta Mei Chou Pao, we made a fair offer to Mr. Wang Ching-wei. If he cares to receive the Editor of this newspaper and disclaim his present implied partnership with the murderous gangsters who—among other things—last Wednesday killed a valued member of our organization, we will deal with him fairly and see to it that he receives full accurate quotation both in Shanghai and abroad. If he chooses to ignore our suggestion he pleads guilty to a charge we'd not care to have lie against us under any circumstances, and particularly not if we were trying to assume a position of public leadership.

We made the offer in good faith as is proved to a considerable extent, we believe, by the fact that the Editor asks no companion, bodyguard, or advance information as to where he is going. He will carry no weapons or protection aside from that pen which is reputedly more potent than the sword but which has never been considered the full equivalent of a bullet-proof vest. Our pledge is given that there will be accurate reporting of whatever Mr. Wang cares to impart. Our sole condition is that we want to see Mr. Wang direct, and that is for the sole reason that we want to be able to guarantee his statement as really coming from him.

It's up to Mr. Wang Ching-wei. He has been put in a most unenviable spot by the threats and violence of persons professing to be attached to him. If he can and will clear himself, here is his chance. If he lets our offer go unnoticed, we and the general public must enter against him a default judgment.

Tea-Party To Press
By Wang Ching-wei
Still In Preparation

Preparations are being made for the projected tea-party to be given by Mr. Wang Ching-wei for foreign correspondents in Shanghai, the Shanghai Evening Post has been informed by telephone by Mr. Sih, liaison officer for Mr. Wang and head of an office at Room 403, 167 Avenue Edward VII—the Shanghai Times Building.

Mr. Sih protested mildly at an article appearing in the Post last Thursday on the ground that the "mystery" alleged to surround the reception, and his office, isn't mysterious at all. The office is registered duly with the police authorities, he said, and the tea-party hasn't been heard of lately because preparations and the guest-list aren't yet fully completed.

As to Mr. S.W. Li, with whom Post reporters tried to make contact, Mr. Sih said that he has been ill for several days but he will soon be around again.

With reference to the Post's Open Letter to Mr. Wang Ching-wei, asking that he receive its American Editor and make clear whether he sponsors such terrorism as caused the assassination of a staff member of the Post's Chinese edition Ta Mei Wan Pa last week, a letter from Mr. P.S. Lin of the Central China Daily News appears today on the Editorial Page.

Mr. Lin says that "Mr. Wang knows nothing about the case. You were right in saying that Mr. Wang could not have anything to do with the terroristic enterprises, from which he more than anybody else has himself suffered . . . but there is no intimation of a direct interview with Mr. Wang himself though the statement as given is said to be authorized.

Terrorism

To the Editor:

Your letter of August 31, addressed to Mr. S.W. Li and Mr. Sih, (previous to and similar in sense to the September 2 Open Letter to Mr. Wang Ching-wei-EDITOR) has been forwarded, and I have been instructed, with reference to your request for a statement, to state the following:

Mr. Wang Ching-wei knows nothing about the case nor about the person of Mr. Chu except that from his writings he is generally known to be a Communistic writer using his position in a foreign-owned publication to attack the true interests of China and spread subversive propaganda to which Mr. Wang however does not attach the slightest importance, although he is quite surprised that publications of your standing should break the rule that foreigners or Chinese employed by foreigners must maintain a strictly neutral and impartial attitude and not meddle in the internal politics of a country.

The point however is that political terrorism has originated with the Chunksing authorities who have employed this inhuman and uncivilized weapon most extensively during recent months to do away with its political opponents. I was the first victim of the most dastardly attack. The second was Dr. Tsene Chung-ming who was killed, while Mr. Wang had a narrow escape; the assassins were, according to the investigations of the French authorities under the direct orders of the Chunksing Secret Service, and several of them carried passports issued in Hongkong under the recommendation of a high official of the Southwest Transportation Company which is the main center of the Chunksing Secret Service. Then followed Mr. Shen Tih-kan who was dastardly killed only a few days ago. The instances which took place in Shanghai are too many to enumerate. But no word of condemnation ever came from the publications under your control although I find it hard to believe that you are condoning these dastardly acts of the Chunksing authorities. Your editors are not the only ones who have received threatening letters. I myself, and every editor of the Central China Daily News in Shanghai and the South China Daily News in Hongkong are under constant threat to their lives. We denounced terrorism as a method of political warfare, but your publications kept silent. And this terrorism started by Chunksing has led to all kinds of compilations and encouraged common criminals and agents provocateurs in their nefarious activities.

It is needless to say that you were right in saying that Mr. Wang could not have anything to do with the terroristic enterprises from which he more than anybody else has himself suffered but should you decide to make use of this letter in any way, I request that the letter be published in full.

Yours truly,

P.S. LIN.

We refute most strongly the allegation that Mr. Chu was Communistic—a label as freely misused today in the Far East to attack anyone whom the writer does not like as "bolshevist" used to be in the United States. As to terrorism, we are completely against it, by whomver used. On the point of Mr. Wang's views with all due respect to Mr. Lin and his connections we must add here to the attitude that only Mr. Wang is competent to speak for himself.—EDITOR.

Mobile Police Patrol Arrests Murderer; Link Seen with Other Crimes

M. Chu Sing-kung, columnist of the "Ta Mei Wan Pao" was shot and killed at 4:12 pm. yesterday as he was walking down North Honan Road. His murderer was arrested a few seconds after he had perpetrated the crime, when a mobile police patrol passed in motorcar and was able to prevent his escape.

Chu had just crossed N. Honan Road Bridge, coming from his office and was about to go home when suddenly, in front of the Embankment Building, a lone gunman advanced, fired a shot which entered the victim's right temple, and after throwing away his weapon, tried to make his escape by running northward along N. Honan Road. At this moment, the police car which was cruising near by, arrived at the scene, taking up the chase after the gunman who, seeing that no chance for an escape was left, gave himself up. He was taken to West Hongkew Police Station and after being questioned, was transferred to Chengtu Road Station as inquiries will be made in that district.

Motive Unknown

The reason for the murder is still puzzling the police, as Chu was known not to have had any political affiliations although, it was pointed out in Chinese circles last night, he frequently published anti-Wang Ching-wei articles which were sent him by readers.

Political Motive Suspected

The fact that detectives from Crime Branch Headquarters and the Special Branch were also investigating the case, indicated that a political motive may have been behind the murder but no definite confirmation on the subject could be obtained.

The weapon used by the gunman was a revolver which indicates that yesterday's assassination may have some connection with the shooting of Mr. Wang Chi-lu, another newspaperman, who, it will be recalled, was shot when he left his Rue Lafayette home on the morning of August 26 when, according to the French police, revolvers were also used although, at the time, none of the gunmen was arrested.

The fact that the murder of Mr. Chu has been transferred to Chengtu Road Station may be an indication that he will be taken over to the French police for questioning, as it is well known that in most cases when the Settlement and the Concession police forces co-operate, this is done through Chengtu Road Station. On the other hand his transfer may have been merely made in order to facilitate the detectives' work.

A reliable though unofficial report had it last night that the murderer arrested yesterday declared that he was a guerrilla. Should this be true and confirmed, the murder becomes all the more puzzling as the policy of the "Ta Mei Wan Pao" is pro-Chinese. On the other hand, if the murderer had some connection with the French Concession shooting affair, this may be correct because at the time, it was reported that Mr. Wang's paper had published advertisements for the Japanese-sponsored fish market in Hongkew.

Chu was reported to have received a number of threatening letters in the past, the last one on Tuesday.

Investigations are proceeding.

Columnist Of Ta Mei Wan Pao Murdered

Victim Shot Dead By
Three Assailants
Near Residence

WAS WELL-KNOWN FOR PUNGENT ARTICLES

Assassins' guns claimed the life of another Chinese newspaperman yesterday afternoon, shortly after 4 o'clock, when Mr. Chu Shing-king, columnist of the "Ta Mei Wan Pao," the Chinese edition of the "Shanghai Evening Post and Mercury," was accosted by three armed men on North Honan Road, near Tiendong Road, and shot dead.

The victim had just left his residence at No. 94 North Honan Road, and was proceeding to his office on Avenue Edward VII, when he was suddenly attacked by three armed men, one of whom fired point-blank at the newspaperman, the bullet lodging in the left temple and resulting in instant death.

The shot attracted the attention of nearby Settlement Chinese police constables, who rushed to the scene and succeeded in arresting one of the assailants, on whose person was found a revolver and five rounds of ammunition.

Had Been Threatened

Meanwhile, an ambulance was called and the victim rushed to the Lester Chinese Hospital where he was pronounced dead on arrival. He was a native of Tanyang, Kiangsu Province, and was 38 years old.

He had been employed by the "Ta Mei Wan Pao" since February 1, 1938, and was well-known in Shanghai for his pungent articles.

Shortly before the murder, it is reliably reported, he was the recipient of several threatening letters.

The dead man is survived by his wife, nee Miss Ho Li-ying, and a seven year-old son.

Later in the evening the "Ta Mei Wan Pao" issued an extra in which details of the murder were given, concluding with a statement reiterating the publication's firm intention of carrying on its newspaper work without submitting to intimidation of any sort.

WANG CHING-WEI'S REPLY TO TA MEI WAN PAO'S "OPEN LETTER"

A telephone message was received yesterday by this paper from one Sih Shih-sung (司士昇), liaison officer of Wang Ching-wei, who is in charge of the office at Room 405, the "Shanghai Times Building" at No. 160 Avenue Edward VII, stating that Wang Ching-wei will soon give a tea party to foreign newspaper correspondents.

As a protest against the "Open Letter" appearing in this paper on Thursday last, Mr. Sih made the following explanation:-

"There is nothing mysterious about my office or about the entertainment as alleged in the report published by the paper in question. My office has already been formally registered with the Police. As regards the question of the holding of a tea party, I knew nothing beforehand, because the arrangements and the list of guests had not yet been completed."

As regards the efforts made by this paper to effect certain arrangements with Li Sung-wu (李聲武), Mr. Sih stated that Li has been unwell for several days but that he would be well soon.

In connection with the "Open Letter" addressed by this paper to Wang Ching-wei, asking him whether he would grant an interview to an American reporter and explain whether or not he had instigated the murder of an employee of the Chinese edition of the paper, a letter has now been received from Ling Pah-sen (令巴森) of the "Central China Daily News," which will be published in full to-morrow (September 5).

According to Ling Pah-sen, Wang Ching-wei had no knowledge about the murder and that it was not likely that Wang Ching-wei could have had any connection with such an act of terrorism for he himself had suffered more than anyone from terrorism.

"THE BLACKMAILING OF THE 'TA MEI WAN PAO'"

The "Central China Daily News" publishes under the above heading the following letter dated September 2 addressed to Randall Gould, editor of the Chinese and English editions of the "Ta Mei Wan Pao" :-

"Your esteemed letter dated August 31, addressed to Messrs. Li (李) and Shih (史) has reached me and in reply, I am directed to state as follows:-

"Mr. Wang Ching-wei knows nothing about this affair or about Tsu Sing-kung (徐錦公). However, a study of Tsu's written works will convince anybody that he was a communist writer. Taking advantage of his position on a foreign-owned newspaper, he was engaged in the dissemination of malicious propaganda against the real interests of China. Though Mr. Wang Ching-wei considers that there is absolutely no necessity to pay any heed to such malicious and defamatory communist propaganda, yet he is surprised at the failure of your esteemed paper to observe, so far as the position of your paper is concerned, the principle that foreigners or Chinese in foreign employ should maintain a strictly neutral and impartial attitude and should refrain from making reckless comments on the internal politics of the country in which they are residing.

"Political terrorism was started by the Chungking authorities. During recent months, inhuman and barbarous acts of this nature have been employed more vigorously as a weapon to remove persons who are opposed to them. I was the first one to sustain serious injuries; this was followed by the fatal wounding of Dr. Tseng Chung-min (曾仲敏). Mr. Wang Ching-wei was very fortunate to have escaped death. According to the investigations made by the French authorities, the assassins in the fatal attack on Tseng Chung-min were actually under the direct orders of the Special Service Organ at Chungking and some of them were even in possession of passports issued in Hongkong, which had been applied for by the high officials of the South-West Transport Company.

"This company is one of the headquarters of the Chungking Special Service Organ. Mr. Sung Tse-ka (宋次高) was likewise made a victim of foul play several days ago. In Shanghai, such activities are much more reckless. And yet nothing in the form of denunciation has been uttered by your esteemed paper over these outrages. I can hardly believe the allegation that you are shielding the outrageous activities of the Chungking Government.

"The editors of your esteemed paper are not the only persons who have received threatening letters. My life as well as the lives of the editors of the 'Central China Daily News' in Shanghai and of the 'South China Daily News' in Hongkong are at all times in danger. a means to attain political ambitions, but your esteemed paper has maintained complete silence over such measures. The terroristic activities carried out by Chungking will not only give rise to all kinds of troubles and complications, but will encourage lawless elements as well as the instigators and agitators.

Besides issuing a compassionate grant of $3,000, General Chiang to-day (September 4) sent the following telegram of condolence to the family of the late editor :-

To Mr. Wang Ching-wei: Where Do You Stand On Terrorism?

(An Open Editorial Letter)

DEAR Mr. Wang Ching-wei:

Over a period of weeks stretching into months we, and many others in Shanghai as well, have been receiving anonymous threatening letters from persons or groups professing allegiance to you. There has been sporadic violence from these sources. Last Wednesday, August 30, a member of the staff of our Chinese edition was shot dead after he had received threats that this would be done because he did not support your political fortunes.

Law-abiding Chinese and foreigners alike are appalled at such tactics. You have been subject to the most scathing criticism because of your apparent responsibility for policies of threat and assassination—the very opposite of the policies of peace and good order which you have endorsed. Certainly if you have the desire to stand forth as a man of honesty, sincerity and conscience, you cannot relish the implication that you are head of a group of gangster murderers. By no interpretation is it possible to square such a position with any pretension to lead reputable elements of the Chinese people.

In this as in all other matters of public interest we desire to be fair. We do not consider that your partnership with assassination is proved by the mere assertions of anonymous correspondents. It seems to us that no man of intelligence, seeking a place of responsibility, can either inspire or condone such policies of attempted coercion and all too successful violence. We therefore place before you the choice of pleading "Guilty" by continued silence, or by giving us a message—which we pledge ourselves to accord wide publicity—utterly disassociating yourself from the vermin who have killed Mr. Chu Hsin-kong and a number of others including one American.

This invitation seems to us a thing which it is decidedly to your advantage to take up. It gives you a chance to clear your name of the stigma of criminality and to confine your differences to the sphere of politics. At the same time, from our own point of view we would like to see these murderous gangsters shorn of any mantle of political excuse—if they do not deserve it—and reduced to the status of ordinary criminals which (if they are not under your direction) is all they deserve.

In the event that you desire to accept our offer of an opportunity publicly to clear yourself of the present sinister implications, the American Editor of the Shanghai Evening Post and of the Ta Mei Wan Pao will call upon you, alone and unarmed, at a time to be fixed by yourself and under circumstances to be left in your hands. There are no strings to this offer. No demand is made that the place of the interview be made known in advance. Your words will be reported precisely, to any reasonable length. Our only condition is that we must know, by first-hand contact, that they come from you.

Sir,

The following is in amplification of that part of the report dealing with the actual arrest of the murderer by C. C. 164 and W.H.P. chauffeur No. 38. At the time when chauffeur No. 38 saw the murderer discard the revolver, he slowly followed him in the Station car until he saw him turn into Tiendong Road, when he, the chauffeur, informed C. C. 164, (who was on traffic duty at North Hon-n and Tiendong Roads corner), pointing out the murderer. The C.C. then called upon the culprit to halt, covering him with his pistol. The arrest of this man was thus effected primarily through the initiative displayed by chauffeur No. 38.

Dear Mr. Ts Soong Loo,

We beg to inform you that the attitude of your press, regarding the peaceful movements of Chief Minister Wang, published a lot of nonsensical literature, further owing to the insulting language used, we regret this matter.

Regarding Mr. Wang's great personality and his painful feeling of saving the country and the Koumingtang, all of our countrymen would favour him. I know you, understand very well that the only people who do not agree with Mr. Wang's attitude are the Chinese Communists, as they have their own secret plan to harm the country. They use their power to break it and the Chungking Government, who are under the authority of the communists.

In future, the part under your editorial, we hope you will keep justice. Not to be utilized by the communists. This is for the good sake of our country and people. Mr. Wang's suggestion, (Anti-Communist) and peaceful movements of saving the country, he does with best determination. He, Mr. Wang, does not wish to follow the terroristic methods which are used by the Chungking Government and he takes no notice of the persons who insult him.

Owing to orders received, that we should carry out the work carefully, we do not use violence against anybody. Ignorant people make a great mistake and think that we are unable to do anything.

From this date, the part under your editorial should be published no more, also the literature or news regarding the Anti-Wang, pro-Communist, or against the peaceful movement. No matter whether it is a Central News Agency's proof or not. Otherwise you are wilfully assisting communism with the intention to turn over to the Koumingtang and harm the country. We will give you no excuse in according to the government's law and warn or notice you no more regarding the above, we will immediately send our men to execute your death sentence, which will give a caution to the others.

After you receive this letter, whether you agree or not, which will be decided upon your own decision.

(Chopped) The Chief Director of the Communists Extermination and Save the Country's Bureau.
The Chinese Koumingtang.
